CRIME STOPPERS REPORT

Christmas Parade Ends Years Activities

The Panama City Jaycees annual Christmas Parade is one of the final activities on the Panhandle Crime Stoppers agenda. With participation by law enforcement agencies the parade float is carefully assemble with a theme to entertain the kids and to publicize the Crime Stopper theme. A sleigh load of kids towed a jail full of crooks with the Grinch driving, and Rudolph pulling. The real pulling was done by Captain Greg Peel and his grandson Charlie

Sgt. Derek Groves and Deputy Richard Bagwell helping get the Crime Stopper float ready to roll. Law enforcement officers and Crime Stopper members walked alongside the float passing out over 30,000 pieces of candy wrapped with the Crime Stopper logo.

Special thanks to our administrator Marian Terry, her husband Chuck, their daughter Alicia, and Capt. Greg Peel's Warrants Division. Their help was invaluable in bringing this project together.
